

EDDY JOHANSSON

PRINCIPAL

SWEDISH EDUCATION

How does Swedish education measure up, and how can a family keep the door to Swedish universities open?

Principal Eddy Johansson of Sigtunaskolan Humanistiska Läroverket (SSHL) will discuss Swedish middle school and high school education as compared to the International Baccalaureate system. Finally, he will talk about the international admissions process to Swedish universities.

Eddy Johansson is the acting Principal of Sigtunaskolan Humanistiska Läroverket (SSHL). Mr. Johansson has a teaching degree from Uppsala University and has worked in international schools in both China and USA as well as in Sweden. Eddy has worked at SSHL since 1994.

SSHL VISITING FLORIDA

SSHL will be touring Florida between February 27 and March 3. SSHL is a Swedish boarding school providing students both from home and abroad with a high-quality, rigorous education in a boarding school setting. At SSHL, students can begin their education as early as year-class 7 in the Swedish system and IB Middle Years Programmes, or at the beginning of High School. Students may choose from several Swedish academic programs or as an alternative the International Baccalaureate in English. As a foundation, SSHL is not run for profit. Remaining funds are re-invested into the school.
